

HANOVER'S GREAT CANADIAN SCAVENGER HUNT CHALLENGE!

Solve the riddle and go to the location to get your letter. Once you have collected all the letters unscramble them to get your answer.

Drop it off at the P & H Centre dropbox by 6:00pm.

- I first rang with post when I lived one block West. My face and two hands light up the night best.
- Towns people gather in this open space. Maskell, White, Burns and Switzer can be found at this place.
- A furniture town we used to be, go to Knechtel's so you can see.
- Always home to a Barrister and Solicitor, in 1900 this downtown place once belonged to Henry Miller.
- The Queen once stayed at this beautiful spot. For nearly two decades it's been nothing more than a lot.
- Colourful flowers and leafy plants are found in this spot. This is where the green thumbs can rent an earth filled plot!
- A donation of land by the Heimbecker's spurred the development of this picturesque retreat. It's a fishing spot that can't be beat!
- A staple of the main street since 1947, this diner's food has been said to "taste like heaven".
- Numerals weren't the norm for streets in a former day. Head to the crossroad where King and Queen like to play.
- Best seen when on your feet, visit this nature reserve hidden at the end of 7th Street.
- Originally home to Hanover's first racetrack, this locale is now a green with many a jack.
- A blast in the barn was once held here. Now home to Falcons, but you have nothing to fear. (We recommend you save this location for last.)
