

Town of Hanover Cultural Roundtable Subcommittee Terms of Reference (2022-2026)

GOAL

The goal of the Cultural Roundtable Subcommittee (the Roundtable) is to advocate and support the implementation of the Cultural Plan and the ongoing objective of culture planning for the Town of Hanover.

PRINCIPLES

Principles that guide the work of the Roundtable include:

- Culture is a cornerstone upon which vibrant resilient, competitive and creative industries are built around;
- There is commitment to support the growth and diversity of cultural activities and offerings in Hanover;
- Hanover's cultural fabric will continue to flourish because of its diversity and interdependence of its not-for-profit community, our creative industries and a wide range of cultural consumers;
- Diversity is welcomed as a source of strength and inspiration and celebrated by Hanover residents;
- Cultural awareness and understanding will be the hallmark of community development decision-making in Hanover; and
- It is acknowledged that our organizations support artists and creators and drive the quality and perception of cultural value within the community.

MANDATE

The mandate of the Roundtable is to provide advice and work to advance the cultural and economic agenda outlined in the 2019 Cultural Plan, including:

- Advising the Economic, Tourism and Cultural Development Advisory Committee (ETCDAC) and Council and staff regarding the implementation of arts, culture and heritage policy for the Town of Hanover and supporting the integration of cultural development into related municipal plans;
- Building community capacity into cultural development by facilitating communication and supporting collaboration among community, business, organizations and municipal interests;
- Conducting advocacy on behalf of Hanover's arts, culture and heritage communities and serving as a forum for the continuous exchange of ideas among a cross-section of groups and individuals in the community and/or preserving and promoting arts and cultural resources;
- Drawing on individual member community interests, connections and expertise relevant to action items;
- Advising on ways to increase the commitment to, and further public understanding of, arts and culture issues;
- Celebrating and reporting on successes; and
- Implementation of Music in the Square summer music series in Heritage Square;

MEMBERSHIP AND RESPONSIBILITIES

The Roundtable shall consist of six members appointed by Council resolution. To the greatest extent possible, public representation will be multi-sectoral and include a representative, and in their absence, an alternate, from the following stakeholder groups:

 - Demonstrate a strong interest in, and commitment to, remaining informed on culture and economic development issues;
 - Participate as a team member, capable of a community ambassador role; and
 - Be strong proponents of cultural development for the Town.
6. In the absence of the chairperson, the quorum will appoint, from its members, a chairperson for that particular meeting who shall be subject to all the normal responsibilities and privileges assigned thereto.
7. By majority vote, the Roundtable may recommend to Council removal and/or replacement of any member who misses three consecutive full meetings of the Roundtable, subject to circumstances surrounding the absence. Members requesting a temporary leave of absence or intending to resign from the Roundtable should provide written notification to the staff liaison at least 30 days prior to such action.

8. In considering new appointments to the Subcommittee, the Subcommittee may recommend new members to be approached to consider applying. Subcommittee positions will be advertised for public applications, in accordance with municipal procedures.
9. Members will be expected to be aware of relevant municipal policies, programs and other initiatives in carrying out their activities. To assist in this regard, the Roundtable may, from time to time, request require the assistance of other staff and/or municipal consultants available to advise the subcommittee as appropriate
10. Municipal employees do not have voting privileges.
11. Roundtable proceedings shall be governed by the Town of Hanover Procedural By-law, Code of Conduct and other relevant policies and procedures.

REPORTING

1. The Roundtable is a Subcommittee (working group) of the established by Council in accordance with these adopted Terms of Reference. Members are bound by these Terms of Reference, and are responsible to Council.
2. The Roundtable reports directly to ETCDAC under the signature of the chairperson or designate in their absence. Roundtable reports and communications will normally be directed to Council through the ETCDAC and the Economic Development Manager.
3. Ongoing reporting requirements are directed through the Economic Development Manager via preparing an annual status report and work plan. The report shall, among other things:
 - Summarize the activities and achievements of the Roundtable via the ETCDAC over the previous year.
 - Describe ongoing activities and issues and identify new priorities/concerns.
 - Outline the Committee's primary projects for the upcoming year, including all anticipated budgetary needs.
4. When required, Subcommittee members will appear before ~~Town~~ Council on behalf of, or as a representative of the Roundtable. Members shall present the Roundtable's official position on a particular matter. However, where a member appears before Council and clearly indicates that they are appearing on behalf of another organization or as a citizen at large and not in their capacity as a member of the Roundtable, they may present a position, which is their personal position or is the position of that organization they represent.

FINANCING

Financial support for the Roundtable will be reviewed annually as part of the municipality's regular budget preparation process. The Roundtable may, from time to time, submit additional, special project funding requests for Council's consideration.

CONFLICT OF INTEREST

Roundtable members have an obligation to disclose any issues of pecuniary interests, if a matter before the Roundtable personally affects them, or where there may be a perceived interest in the matter under consideration. Members shall declare the interest, in writing, at the beginning of the meeting and shall not discuss or vote on the particular matter.

STAFF LIAISON AND SUPPORT SERVICES

1. Administrative support to be provided by the Town includes: the coordination of Roundtable related communications and correspondence; arranging visits to related cultural businesses, organizations and/or events; ensuring Roundtable reports are included in Council agenda packages; and technical support as needed, e.g., photocopying.
2. The Roundtable budget will be administered by the Economic Development Manager with input from the Roundtable.

MEETINGS

1. The Roundtable shall normally meet once every other month, or at the call of the chairperson with adequate notice to be given to all members. The meetings will generally take place the 1st Wednesday of each month at 10:00 a.m. All Roundtable meetings are public.
2. The Roundtable may, from time to time, invite resource persons to attend a meeting.
3. The Roundtable may establish working groups for various topics, issues or proposals as required. Such working groups may include non-Roundtable members, with the approval of the chairperson, provided a member chairs the working group. Working groups shall report to the Roundtable through the working group chair.
4. Quorum as it relates to Roundtable means a majority (more than half) of the whole number of members required by law to constitute the Roundtable except where a member has, or members have, declared a pecuniary interest pursuant to the Municipal Conflict of Interest Act, at which time the remaining number of members shall be deemed to constitute a quorum, provided such number is not less than two.
5. Roundtable members are encouraged to participate in related cultural events and activities.
6. Subject to the provisions of the Town's Procedural By-law on matters requiring votes, the Roundtable shall strive for consensus, and shall normally only communicate the consensus or majority position to Council. On matters where there is a significant lack of consensus, minority positions may also be reported to Council, at the discretion of the chairperson. The chairperson generally does not vote, unless deemed necessary to break a tie.

AGENDAS AND MINUTES

1. An agenda for the upcoming Roundtable meeting will be prepared by staff for approval by the chairperson and e-mailed to members at least three business days in advance of the meeting.
2. Formal minutes of the Roundtable meeting will be prepared by staff, provided to members with the next meeting's agenda and forwarded to the Economic, Tourism and Cultural Development Committee and Clerk for inclusion on the Council agenda as soon as possible.

AMENDMENTS

The Roundtable may wish to review the Terms of Reference from time to time and make recommendations to Council regarding amendments.
